

HISTORIAN

DEFINITION:

Responsible for compiling a chronological record of club events.

DUTIES:

- Researches club history by searching through archives for club information and contacting current and past members and officers
- Generates a year-by-year review of club activities
- Publishes the captured information in the club newsletters and/or the official club historical document
- Creates listing of past club officers