Old and New Business:

- Four slots are still open in this years calender for educational meetings
- Our April meetings will be swapped Educational first Wednesday with speaker Don Kagin
- National Coin Week & The Greatest American Coin Hunt coincides with our Spring show, we as a club want to participate in the coin drop by circulating about a thousand rare coins. More details on this at next meeting.
- We're going to start verifying raffle tickets to avoid confusion

Coin Show Updates:

- Been going to shows to recruit dealers and its working but still have many tables open
- We're trending behind table sales because a lot of dealers are unable to make it
- Ticket sales needed to compensate for show expenses
- Volunteers still need at the show, please see the sign-up sheet
- A seconded sheet was thought be needed on the club website for exhibitors but the one that's there is adequate
- Duties for the show front table were passed out
- Appeal made for more exhibitors, youth exhibitors are also encouraged to participate
- A proposal to have a "Peoples Choice Award" was made to establish exhibit prizes winners
- Take-a-coin / leave-a-coin mentioned
