volunteered and received the 10 tickets for this meeting.

Gratitude:

Pat gave special thanks to many people (too many to name) who volunteered to make the potluck and the entire year a great experience for all.

Some uninvited, and somewhat undesirable visitors came for the free food tonight and were politely asked to leave, and they did. Pat asked members to use the “buddy system” when coming to and leaving the meeting, as there is safety in numbers.

Induction Luncheon

The Induction of new club officers will be on Sunday January 15, 2023 at noon, for a special luncheon in our regular club meeting room. Member cost for the luncheon is $10. Sandwiches, soups, salads, beverages and desserts will be served. This meeting will have another Super Raffle, including 3 top prizes.

NO AUCTION WAS HELD AT THIS MEETING: The primary order of business is the annual holiday potluck.

Club Gifts from Santa

Every member in attendance tonight received a gift from the club.

Gold and silver guesses: From the members’ guesses logged at our January 2022 meeting for the closing price of each metal at tonight’s meeting, the winners with the closest guesses were Kathy Petersen with her guess of $1837.37 for gold and Nancy Oliver with her guess of $24.12 for silver.

Best Holiday garb prize was awarded to: Pat Carpenter, who won an American Silver Eagle.

The raffle drawing started early at 8:25 and ended at 8:39. The gold was won by John Degen. The meeting ended at 8:34.

The club’s next function will be for our induction of our new club officers along with a catered lunch on January 15, 2003. That function will also have a spectacular raffle with three top tier prizes.

Our next club REGULAR club meeting is SIX weeks away on January 25. This meeting will feature our annual coin trivia game, an auction and a raffle. The meeting will be at the Swanston Community Center at 7:00 PM sharp. Hope to see you all there.
